

WBF reports on its 2011 activities

MATTHEW SHELDON

THE Worcester Business Forum (WBF) held its annual general meeting in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening, where the forum presented all the achievements and challenges they faced in the last year.

The Chairperson of the Worcester Business Forum (WBF), Mr Nik Wullschleger (left) thanked Mr Hermias van Zyl (ex-member of the WBF management committee) and handed him a gift in appreciation of his efforts during his time at the WBF.

Mr Nic Wullschleger, WBF Chairperson, presented all the forum's achievements, challenges, future projects and objectives to an attentive crowd.

Executive Mayor Basil Kivedo from the Breede Valley Municipality delivered his keynote address at the WBF's annual general meeting.

The Executive Mayor and Municipal Manager of the Breede Valley Municipality, Cllr Basil Kivedo (second from right) and Mr Gerrit Matthyse (right), were present at the WBF annual meeting.

The WBF's annual general meeting saw representatives from the Breede Valley Municipality, members of the WBF, various business owners, representatives from the Standard and other business representatives in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening.

The South Roots group performed traditional dance items.

Representatives from the Standard in attendance at the meeting listened attentively to one of the speakers.

The meeting was opened by the South Roots group from Roodeval. The group did a protocol welcoming with drums, based on the traditional "riel" dance. Photos: Matthew Sheldon